HON. J. M. DOUBLEDAY

will address the voters at Perth on Saturday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p. m. All invited.

JERRY SIMPSON

Will Speak at South Haven Oct. 21.

Preparations are being made to give Congressman Simpson a grand ovation at South Haven, Friday, Oct. 21. He will speak in the afternoon. The good people of that section have been waiting Jerry at that point for some time and will turn out en masse without any urging. It will be a big day for South Haven.

"The Printer" is a new paper just started in New York in defense of honest, organized labor. N. T. Bowtell is editor and puts in some good shots for enemies of unionism, including that great fraud and humbug, Whitelle Reid.

Don't forget that Congressman Simpson and Hon. L. D. Lewelling, candidate for governor, will be here Nov. 4. The out townships are already preparing to come en masse and from all indications there will be a few voters here that day. Get ready.

The partisan associated press sent out reports that 1,000 stalwart Democrats would attend the Topeka, gold-bug, Republican annex, straight-out convention. There were 307 present, demonstrating conclusively that the straight-outs are either few in number or ashamed to be caught in company with their old enemies. Even free passes were of no avail. It was a fizzle and a farce, and an undisputed Republican trick. They are grabbing at straws.

The Republicans seem to be making this campaign under false pretenses. They advertise speakers who fail to come to time; hold a convention under the name of Democrats; arrest our State chairman on false charges; cunningly word their posters to deceive people into the belief that they are to hear a joint discussion and pretend to think they are going to win. All these things indicate a weakness and the desperation to which they are driven. Keep them on the run.

Grand Master Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, a lifelong Democrat, has given out that he will vote with the Republicans because he believes in protection.—Genda Springs Herald.

Such falsehoods as the above are probably the kind the Republicans are placing their hopes of success upon. Mr. Powderly has been earnestly supporting the People's movement ever since the Omaha convention.

The kicker's convention at Topeka was not a howling success. The Kansas City Star, a Democratic newspaper, says there were less than four hundred present. Considering that the Republicans furnished them free transportation and put no limit on the number who might attend, it was a laughable farce. It is too plain a trick of the Republicans to fool the Democratic voters. As a party they will stand by the action of the July convention.

Another Trick Exposed.

Republican fixers are bending every effort to get up some sort of a clash between the Populists and Democrats, in order if possible to alienate the Democratic vote from our ticket. Let everybody keep their wits about them. There will be a deep seated purpose to every plausible report that is made by the opposition from now on.

BADLY SCARED.

A few days ago a certain prominent Republican speaker, who is stumping Kansas for the old party, in speaking to a gentleman whom he supposed to be a Republican, in reply to what he thought of the prospect in this state, said: "We have got the poll of the state and by our own showing, Lewelling has about 20,000 majority. It looks bad. We have got to do something to counteract this if we can. Our plan is to claim everything. About two or three weeks before election we expect to have men in various parts of the state to declare their disgust with some particular parts of the speeches made by the Populist fellows and declare their intention to leave the party and go back to their old party. Interviews have been arranged with Republican papers in various parts of the state, who will publish this list of names who have left the Alliance and in this way try and make a break in their ranks all over the state." When asked if they were sure they could get their men, he replied: "Oh yes, we have them already selected; we arranged for them to go into that party last spring and they can now leave it, as being dissatisfied." The expediency of this policy being questioned, he replied: "Why, it is the only thing we have got left. We are beaten and have got to do something to try and save ourselves. In the congressional districts, Humphrey, Long and Funston will be beaten; Broderick will pull through, so will Charlie Curtis, in the Topeka district, too, I think, and Baker in the Sixth district may be beaten, as the Democrats do not like him."—Summer County Standard.

We do not know from what source the Standard got its information on this point, but we do know that we dropped on to the same scheme a few days ago. It came from a reliable source and there is no doubt of the intention of Republican managers trying to cause a stampede in this way. People should be prepared and expect to hear all sorts of "canards" from now on.

Magazine Literature Coming to the Rescue.

One of the most favorable signs of the times is the prominence being given to the cause of the industrial millions by the magazines. Nearly two years ago the Arena Magazine came out editorially for the People's cause. Contrary to the advice and prophecy of its friends it has proved a wonderful success. It has forced all the leading reviews to a discussion of the industrial problems, some of them editorially, others by contributors. We are told by the editor of the Arena, Mr. R. O. Flower, that it is being developed "that the rank and file of our wealthy or well-to-do people do not sympathize with conditions which necessarily grind down the many that the few may live in luxury and idleness, and that they only need to be informed to take their stand for right and justice. The Cosmopolitan, another of the high class magazines, edited by Mr. James Brisbane Walker, has an editorial article in the September number in which he takes advanced ground on the industrial problems. The tone and tenor of his article can be judged from the following extract:

"With great fortunes are coming upon the scene an unparalleled luxury upon the one hand and a poverty upon the other that is scarcely surpassed in the days when production did not equal one-tenth the present output. In the strife for wealth the lawmaking power was found to be a useful auxiliary. Judges were bought, senatorships were sold in the interest of railroads and the great corporations; and in the last ten years we find wealth—not contented with the advantages which the laws, confessedly in its favor, give it—bring private armies to give force to edicts, allotting to the laborer a lesser share of the product. Lovers of the republic may well tremble at this exhibition, so closely resembling the evil days when rich Romans surrounded themselves by hired bands of fighting bulles. True, our modern rich man does not parade the streets, surrounded by his gladiators. He sits in a secret office, removed from danger, and, in communication with the telegraph wires, orders his army concentrated from many states by rapid transit, and moves it unexpectedly upon his private foes. There is lacking that personal courage which gives a halfway excuse to the Roman, who, sword in hand, shared the dangers of the fight. But the risk to the republic is all the greater from these modern methods; for if a man may hire three hundred poor devils ready to shoot down their brothers in misery, there is no reason why he may not hire ten thousand."

Other magazines are coming to the front also, and with such intelligent lights as these coming to the rescue, it will not be long until the big hearts of the great middle class of Americans is reached and the march of human progress and human wisdom will proceed.

In our rush last week a communication from Slate Valley was crowded out. Several other contributions meet a like fate this week. Don't feel slighted, friends; when this cruel war is over we will have more space for local matter.

"CLAIM YOUR BAGGAGE."

ONE OF THEIR SELF-LAID TRAPS.
Seattle Telegraph.

The claim that high protection has lowered prices implies that lower protection would raise prices, and if prices go up why should not wages go up likewise? This is one of the difficulties into which the logic of high tariff piracy leads its advocates.

DID YOU?

The Advocate.
This thing of answering argument with eggs is one of the good old conservative ways in Kansas and Georgia, one of the ways to keep up the credit and good name of the state. By the way, did you ever hear of a Republican meeting being disturbed by People's party men, or even boys of that persuasion?

THE SAME NORTH AND SOUTH.

Plutocratic arguments, north and south, are the same. Weaver's party was egged in Georgia. Sam Small was shot in Indiana and John G. Otis was treated to a dose of hen fruit in Princeton, Kan., and the campaign is not over yet by more than a month. "Whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad."

MUST ANSWER WITH ARGUMENT.

The Advocate.
This year we shall hear the last of "down with calamity," "redeem Kansas," etc., as campaign slogans. When the opponents of reform see that the people are not to be scared or driven by such foolishness, they will conclude there is something in this calamity cry that will have to be answered by argument.

THE TRUTH ABOUT IT.

Kansas Consumer.
The election of Jerry Simpson to congress means that the people will have a representative who will vote for their interests as often as an opportunity offers itself. Chester I. Long would represent no one but the gold bugs, the monopolists and bondholders. They are backing Long's campaign, and it is only by their aid that he is enabled to remain in the fight for a single week.

THE AUSTRALIAN IDEA.

Times Tribune.
The government of Australia owns the railroads and passengers can ride 1000 miles for $6.50. Commutation rates for local travel are still lower. A laborer can ride to or from his work a distance of six miles for two cents a trip, 12 miles for 4 cents, 23 miles for 8 cents, 30 miles for 10 cents. Yearly tickets 30 miles for $17.40. Americans prefer to pay the poor railroad men like Gould, Sage, Stanford, Vanderbilt & Co. ten times as much. Those who do not are termed "Calamity Howlers."

HE BEGAN THINKING.

Alliance Herald.
A Wilson county farmer who has always been a Republican until three months ago, says he recently had a debt of forty dollars to become due and in order to meet it he was compelled to sell four cows. He began thinking of his prosperity and remembered that a few years ago he paid a similar debt with one cow, but now, under Republican prosperity, he was compelled to part with four times as much property as was needed to pay the debt a few years ago. Still President Harrison says all the farmers' products have increased 18 per cent. in the last two years with the exception of cereals, which have increased 33 per cent.

Warning.

For the last month the Republican and Democratic daily papers have so grossly and maliciously misrepresented the People's Party and our commitments, that I am compelled to issue this notice to our people. Between now and the November election you may look for anything in the way of false reports, deals, and sellouts of which they will accuse the People's party. They know that we have but few daily papers and they reach but a limited number of our people, and our means to contradict their misrepresentations at best is only a feeble one. The last fake that was wired from here was that I received a telegram from Indianapolis to go there in haste, as there was a big deal on hand. I knew nothing about this until it was shown to me in print the next day. The whole story is a base lie and falsehood. I was invited to go to Indianapolis by H. Vincent, secretary of the State committee, to attend a meeting of the State committee, which I did, and they used this visit on which to base this false report.

I wish the people would bear in mind, that I am just as unable to prevent the press from circulating these reports as General Weaver was unable to secure free speech and decent treatment from the Democrat's in Georgia. I regret to say that we have timid and weak-hearted people in our ranks, whose minds are disturbed by these reports, and as I have neither time nor inclination to refer to this again, I want to say that I do not want to be held responsible for anything published, unless it appears over my own signature. I do this to protect myself and warn our friends against anything that may be published between now and the November election.

H. E. TAUBENECK.

A Lie Nailed.

I have written no campaign documents for either the democratic or republican party, will not write any and will not support the candidates of any party but the one which had the honesty and manhood to lay claim to the Knights of Labor by adopting the preamble of the Knights of Labor in its national platform—the People's party candidates, Gen. James B. Weaver and Gen. James G. Field.

T. V. Powderly, in Kansas City Journal of Saturday, Sept. 24.
A primary meeting of the People's party of Wellington township will be held at the place of voting, Saturday, Oct. 22, 1892, at 7 p. m., for the purpose of nominating a township ticket. At that desire to affiliate with the People's party are cordially invited.
